Meeting Business

The first meeting at the flying field was a great success. The weather was great and lots of flying was taking place. Chef /President Jim cooked hot dogs.

The propeller we have been looking was found hidden in Everett's garage.

The club voted to donate $100 for National Aviation Day. The money collected will go to the Wounded Warriors Project.

Bill Dillinger created RCSF business cards and distributed them to members

We are having a work day at the field May 21st.

Fun Facts

English is the international language of flight. All flight controllers and all commercial pilots who fly on international flights are required to speak English.

"Grandpa is showing us how they sent a text when he was a kid."
